

NZVA
New Zealand Veterinary Association

Companion Animal

	Thu 18 Nov	Fri 19 Nov	Sat 20 Nov
7am	Registration opens
8am	An endocrinology approach to polyuria/polydipsia Jessica Romine	Understanding learning theory Lindsay Skyner	How to get the best from your pathology lab Sandra Forsyth
8.30am
9am	Canine hyperadrenocorticism: which test is best and what treatment works Tommy Fluen	How to provide low-stress veterinary visits of your patients Jess Beer	In-house cytology: tips, tricks and some common skin lumps and bumps Kathryn Jenkins
9.30am
10am	Morning tea
10.30am	When things go wrong in practice Brett Gartrell	Plenary Sam Hazledine	Thoracic imaging: how to optimise your images and improve your assessment Caroline Eivers
11am	Calcium and vitamin D disorders Jessica Romine
11.30am	Thyroid disease in dogs: making an accurate diagnosis Jessica Romine	Gut brain axis in dogs Caroline Mansfield	Abdominal ultrasonography in general practice Caroline Eivers
12pm		Effective use of medications for behavioural issues Elsa Flint
12.30pm	Lunch
1.30pm	Canine diabetes: my approach and the progress we have made Linda Fleeman	Puppy socialisation: how do we advise clients? Jess Beer	It's in the blood: in-house vs. lab blood tests Sandra Forsyth
2pm		The case for reward-based learning Lindsay Skyner
2.30pm	Feline diabetes: my approach and what we have learnt Linda Fleeman	Case studies focused on anxiety conditions Elsa Flint	Companion Animal Veterinarians Branch of the NZVA AGM
3pm			Reducing compassion fatigue and moral distress in animal care professionals Bridey White
3.30pm	Afternoon tea
4pm	Nutrition in diabetes Linda Fleeman	Treatment and handling for cats in the senior life stage Jess Beer	Mast cell tumour: cytologic diagnosis of a pleomorphic tumour Kathryn Jenkins
4.30pm	Diagnosis and management of hypoadrenocorticism in dogs Tommy Fluen	Is it behavioural or medical? Elsa Flint	What can clinical pathology offer in GI disease work-up? Sandra Forsyth
5pm	Diagnosing and managing insulinoma Tommy Fluen	Panel discussion Elsa Flint, Jess Beer, Lindsay Skyner	Mast cell tumour: cytologic grading and staging Kathryn Jenkins
5.30pm	Happy Hour

Dairy Cattle

	Thu 18 Nov	Fri 19 Nov	Sat 20 Nov
7am	Registration opens
8am	Estimating Johne's disease prevalence within the milking herd through effluent Rebecca White	Dry cow AMR decision making (farmer and vet beliefs on AMR/DCT) Tim Cameron
	Salmonella on dairy farms: the emerging story Chris Compton	Changing MICs and implications for prescribing antibiotics Scott McDougall
8.30am	Johne's disease in New Zealand: an LIC perspective Rebecca White	Managing staph aureus in NZ dairy herds Scott McDougall	Does this need AEC approval? A guide for research work in a clinical setting Nita Harding
9am	Neospora: a most unwelcome introduction Carl Finnigan	Teat sealant retention and efficacy in reducing mastitis around calving Andrew Bates	Dairy vets - the future from a NZVA perspective Kevin Bryant
	The psychosocial impact of M. bovis on rural communities Mark Bryan	Changing use of DCT - summarise data of DCT use over last 5 yrs Jane Lacy-Hulbert	VCNZ update on new CPD requirements Seton Butler
9.30am	Involvement of vet practices in the M. bovis program Richard Campbell	Three year AMU reduction strategy Mark Bryan	Phosphorus requirements in cattle Jims Gibbs
10am	Morning tea
10.30am	Passive transfer of antibodies to calves from dams vaccinated with Salvexin B Amanda Kilby, Alistair Kenyon	Plenary Sam Hazledine	Deconstructing subclinical acidosis: some fact, more myth and the larger fiction Jims Gibbs
	Effect of preservatives on bacteria and nutritional composition in colostrum Emma Cuttance		Novel bulk milk test to monitor zinc supplementation Ash Keown
11am	Beyond bobbies: a life worth living for dairy calves Ina Pinxterhuis		An animal-centric dairy industry enabled by digital technology Jeremy Bryant
11.30am	Do calves actually feed from their dams? Emma Cuttance	Flexible milking for healthier people and cows Paul Edwards	Ovary scanning as a tool to assess heat detection and its application in practice Ryan Luckman
12pm	Proactive calf rearing programmes Mara Elton	Max T - saving time to benefit people and cows Paul Edwards
		Adopting milking efficiency: the veterinarians role Steve Cranefield	Cow collars - what are the opportunities for vets? Ryan Luckman
12.30pm	Lunch
1.30pm	Drenching dairy heifers: the science Abi Chase	Effect of weather and crop paddock conditions on cow behaviour Dawn Dalley	Adapting vet practice for future farming (WelFarm program) Samantha Tennent
2pm	Cross-fit for heifers? transition management and lameness control Winston Mason	Heat stress - how to keep cows cool in summer Karin Schutz	Attitudes to pain in sheep and cattle (of farmers and technicians) Emma Cuttance
		Sentience and the 5 domains model - relevance to livestock veterinarians Richard Wild	From animal health to animal wellbeing - where vets fit in Katie Saunders
2.30pm	Impact of a calf scours vaccine on colostral immunoglobulins Greg Chambers	Time budget study update - how cows spend day Katie Saunders	Animal welfare assurance - a processors perspective Ash Keown
	Targeted selective anthelmintic treatment of dairy heifers: effects on performance Andrew Bates	The "high vs low fertility breeding value" herd: final chapter Chris Burke	Panel discussion on practical implementation of animal wellbeing Samantha Tennent, Emma Cuttance, Katie Saunders
3pm	BVD testing in calves - maternal ABS Scott McDougall	Mitigating pain responses in goat kids during and post-disbudding Winston Mason
3.30pm	Afternoon tea
4pm	Surviving clinical errors in practice Brett Gartrell	Benefits of heifer synchrony TBC	Dairy Cattle Veterinarians Branch of the NZVA AGM
4.30pm		Fertility traits during the peripubertal period of Holstein-Friesian heifers Chris Burke
	Risks in practice: a VPIS perspective Steve Cranefield	Synthetic zeolite reduces milk fever in grazing dairy cows Katrina Roberts
	Farmstrong - support for rural communities TBC
5pm	GoodYarn in practice - talking the talk and walking the walk Emma Franklin
5.30pm	Happy Hour

Epidemiology, Food Safety, Animal Welfare and Biosecurity

	Thu 18 Nov	Fri 19 Nov	Sat 20 Nov
7am	Registration opens
8am	Workshop: So what do these test results mean? And is the treatment I'm about to recommend right Scott McDougall, Chris Compton & Mark Stevenson	African swine fever: a New Zealand perspective Lynsey Earl, Leigh Sinclair, Andrew McFadden, Mark Eames	Modernisation of meat inspection Sergio Ghidini
8.30am		ASF and truck biosecurity Bruce Welch	Game changing phone apps for rabies control at scale Andy Gibson
9am		All things feed and disease Michael Brooks	Building the business case for BVD eradication: methodological approaches Carolyn Gates
9.30am		What vets can do day-to-day for farm biosecurity Will Halliday	Towards understanding leptospirosis: an interdisciplinary approach Jackie Benschop
10am	Morning tea
10.30am	Workshop: So what do these test results mean? And is the treatment I'm about to recommend right Scott McDougall, Chris Compton & Mark Stevenson	Plenary Sam Hazeldine	Backing our backyard poultry: opportunities and challenges Sabrina Greening
11am			What 15 years of research tells us about farm dogs Naomi Cogger
11.30am		Find, contain, control (Mycoplasma bovis) Amy Burroughs	Covid-19 and trade disruptions MIA
12pm		The importance of veterinarians during a large-scale animal disease response Amira Mikhail	Covid-19 and trade disruptions Rochelle Ferguson
12.30pm	Lunch
1.30pm	Workshop: So what do these test results mean? And is the treatment I'm about to recommend right Scott McDougall, Chris Compton & Mark Stevenson	One Health Sharon Gardiner	Update on animal welfare regulations Richard Wild
2pm		One Health Nigel French	The five domains model for welfare assessment Nikki Kells
2.30pm		One Health Warren Hughes	CIMS: coordinated incident management systems Jess Shelgren
3pm		One Health Tennielle Ellingham	Pig welfare Bruce Welch
3.30pm	Afternoon tea
4pm	Workshop: So what do these test results mean? And is the treatment I'm about to recommend right Scott McDougall, Chris Compton & Mark Stevenson	One Health in everyday practice Kurt Arden	Lead in water Andrew Pearson & Jeane Nicolas
4.30pm		One Health panel discussion Sharon Gardiner, Nigel French, Warren Hughes, Oliver Reeve, Tennielle Ellingham	Implications of Salmonella Enteritidis infections and its control measures Kat Govender
5pm			Vibrio outbreak in mussels Piers Harrison
5.30pm	Happy Hour
		Epidemiology, Animal Welfare, Food Safety and Biosecurity Branch of the NZVA AGM

NZVA
New Zealand Veterinary Association

EXPORT

Large Animal Veterinary Technicians

	Thu 18 Nov	Fri 19 Nov
7am	Registration opens
8am	Introduction: LAVT - where we have been and where we are going Mark Bryan, Kate Gloyn	Ultrasound pregnancy testing for technicians Steve Cranefield
8.30am	Inspiring technicians Mark Bryan, Kate Gloyn
8.30am	Salary survey results Justine Britton
9am	Discussion: What are teams doing to promote resilience, leadership and a positive team culture Jess Rees, Justine Britton, Kim Bastiaansen & Peter Gallacher	Detection and treatment of endometritis for technicians Steve Cranefield
9.30am
10am	Morning tea
10.30am	Passive transfer of antibodies to calves from dams vaccinated with Salvexin B Amanda Kilby, Alistair Kenyon	Plenary Sam Hazeldine
11am	Effect of preservatives on bacteria and nutritional composition in colostrum Emma Cuttance
	Beyond bobbies: a life worth living for dairy calves Ina Pinxterhuis
11.30am	Do calves actually feed from their dams? Emma Cuttance	Mitigating pain responses in goat kids during and post-disbudding Winston Mason
12pm	Proactive calf rearing programmes Mara Elton	Tail scoring and the 5 domains of welfare Mark Bryan
		Animal health to wellbeing: where do vet techs fit in? Katie Saunders
12.30pm	Lunch
1.30pm	Drenching youngstock - testing for efficacy, egg reappearance periods, adequate refugia Abi Chase	Attitudes to pain Emma Cuttance
2pm	CrCross-fit for heifers? Transition management and lameness control Winston Mason	Restraint Peter Gallacher & Tim Scotland
2.30pm	Impact of a calf scours vaccine on colostral immunoglobulins Greg Chambers	Lab session - FEC, milk cultures, calf scours, FPT/BRIX, nitrate, FECRT interpretation, triple resistance case study
3pm	Targeted selective anthelmintic treatment of dairy heifers: effects on performance Andrew Bates
	BVD testing in calves - maternal ABS Scott McDougall
3.30pm	Afternoon tea
4pm	Surviving clinical errors in practice Brett Gartrell	Wrap up
4.30pm	Risks in practice: a VPIS perspective Steve Cranefield	Large Animal Veterinary Technicians AGM
	Farmstrong - support for rural communities TBC
5pm	Goodyarn project Emma Franklin
5.30pm	Happy Hour

Veterinary Business

Thu 18 Nov
7am	Registration opens
8am	Ownership: it's not as scary as you think! Fiona Couchman
8.30am
9am	How to value a veterinary business and financing into ownership Craig Melhuish
9.30am
10am	Morning tea
10.30am	Practice ownership and succession Shaun Phelan
11am
11.30am	Personal sustainability: financially setting yourself up for the long term Chris Leathman
12pm
12.30pm	Lunch
1.30pm	Starting a clinic from scratch: Evolution Vets Laurie Gray
2pm	Business ownership: the high and lows TBC
2.30pm	Business ownership Kate Gloyn
3pm	Succession - how I got into ownership Megan Alderson
3.30pm	Afternoon tea
4pm	Experience entering into veterinary business ownership TBC
4.30pm
5pm	End of day open mic
5.30pm	Happy Hour

Complementary Veterinary Medicine

Fri 19 Nov
7am	Registration opens
8am	Raw food debate panel: Benefits and risks - working with clients productively Liza Schneider & Rebecca Brown
8.30am
9am	CBD - cannabidiol: future role in veterinary medicine Jacqui Snell
9.30am
10am	Morning tea
10.30am	Plenary Sam Hazledine
11am
11.30am	Vaccination: working with clients who don't want to vaccinate Liza Schneider
12pm
12.30pm	Lunch
1.30pm	An integrative approach to skin disease in companion animals: different perspectives from three holistic veterinarians Viv Harris, Jacqui Snell & Wendy Dixon
2pm
2.30pm	Integrative approach panel discussion and Q&A Viv Harris, Jacqui Snell & Wendy Dixon
3pm
3.30pm	Afternoon tea
4pm	Staff fulfilment: a recipe for success for veterinary practices Francesca Brown
4.30pm
5pm	Sustainable health care and One Health in practice Liza Schneider
6pm	Complementary Veterinary Medicine Branch of the NZVA AGM

NZVA
New Zealand Veterinary Association

EXPORT

Veterinary Nursing

	Fri 19 Nov (Companion Animal)	Sat 20 Nov (Companion Animal and Wellness)
7am	Registration opens
8am	Anaesthesia troubleshooting Vicki Walsh	Urinary catheters: when, how, and what care is needed Kat Crosse	Health and safety and YOU Megan Alderson
8.30am
9am	Brachycephalics in practice: recognising danger ahead Kat Crosse	On the front line: fielding client enquiries about animal behaviour Elsa Flint	Managing different personalities: conflict resolution tips that maintain work-relationships Michael Meehan
9.30am
10am	Morning tea
10.30am	Brachycephalics in practice: airway surgery and recovery Kat Crosse	Analgesia in anaesthesia: how are the opioids stacking up? Vicki Walsh	The team meeting Megan Alderson
11am
11.30am	Radiography: what's important and what's not Nicki Moffatt	TIVA (total intravenous anaesthesia) benefits and risks, when to use and what you require to deliver safely Vicki Walsh	Climbing the ladder... Tutor: Lauren Prior , VTS: Katie Duncan , Nursing Abroad: Robyn Taylor , Head Nurse: Libby Leader
12pm
12.30pm	Lunch
1.30pm	Radiography hacks Nicki Moffatt	Fear free practice Elsa Flint	Finding research: Evidence based understanding Alastair Coomer
2pm
2.30pm	Xenotransfusion - should we or shouldn't we? Robyn Taylor	Don't be confused on how to transfuse: canine transfusion made simple Robyn Taylor	Are you being heard? inclusive practical team building strategies Michael Meehan
3pm
3.30pm	Afternoon tea
4pm	NZVNA AGM	Anaesthesia and the parts of the 'iceberg' we do not see Vicki Walsh	Resilience at work Kathryn Jackson
4.30pm	ECG under anaesthesia Vicki Walsh
5pm		Emergency avian care 101 Pauline Howard

Wildlife & Avian

	Fri 19 Nov (Avian)	Sat 20 Nov (Wildlife)	Sun 21 Nov (Wildlife)	Sun 21 Nov (Avian)
7am	Registration opens
8am	Conducting a pet bird consultation Kevin Turner	Local conservation TBC	Wildlife practitioner papers TBC	Avian skills for the practitioner Pauline Howard & Janelle Ward
8.30am		Zealandia TBC
9am	Common conditions of avian patients in general practice Allen Yang	Capital Kiwi and Polhill Protectors Jim Mitford-Taylor, Paul Ward, Lisa Whittle & Shelby Stoneburner
9.30am
10am	Morning tea
10.30am	Plenary Sam Hazledine	Wildlife rehab disease transmission risks Auckland Zoo	Wildlife practitioner papers TBC	Avian skills for the practitioner Pauline Howard & Janelle Ward
11am		Wildlife surveillance MPI Craig Pritchard
11.30am	The basics of pet bird nutrition Kevin Turner	Vet pathology TBC
12pm	Veterinary involvement in the Kakapo recovery programme Lydia Uddstrom	Reptiles Auckland Zoo
12.30pm	Lunch
1.30pm	Husbandry of wildlife in the clinic Pauline Nijman	Massey University resident's papers	Zealandia field trip
2pm	Avian anaesthesia and analgesia Auckland Zoo
2.30pm	Avian radiology Megan Jolly			International veterinary collaboration in a complex wildlife case Lydia Uddstrom
3pm		Ecology Massey University
3.30pm	Afternoon tea
4pm	Bird detective: diagnostic clues for the avian patient Janelle Ward	Wildlife practitioner papers TBC	Zealandia field trip
4.30pm		Oiled wildlife response: processes from intake to release Bridey White
5pm	Introduction to avian surgery for general practice Megan Jolly	Wildlife Branch of the NZVA AGM

Industry

Wed 17 Nov
12.30pm	Registration opens
1pm	Welcome and committee update
1.30pm	ACVM workshop Karen Booth & Awilda Baoumgren
2pm
2.30pm
3pm	Afternoon tea
3.20pm	Economic update: competition among firms for labour heats up Jarrod Kerr
4.10pm	Maintaining an APC Seton Butler
4.40pm	Wrap up

Social programme

Wed 17 Nov

- » Industry Branch Dinner

Thu 18 Nov

- » ANZCVS Breakfast - Sky Stadium, 7.15am
- » Happy Hour - Sky Stadium, 5.30pm
- » Epidemiology, Food Safety, Animal Welfare & Biosecurity Branch Dinner, 7.30pm
- » Companion Animal Veterinarians Branch After Hours Party, 8pm

Fri 19 Nov

- » 5km Fun Run - Wellington Wharf, 6.30am
- » Hill's Pet Nutrition Breakfast - Sky Stadium, 7am
- » Dairy Cattle Veterinarians and Large Animal Veterinary Technicians Branch Dinner, 7pm
- » Complementary Veterinary Medicine Branch Dinner
- » Veterinary Nursing Dinner

Sat 20 Nov

- » Wildlife Branch Dinner, 7pm